

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Northbound Lanes of I-75 to Close Saturday Morning
for Bridge Work in Oakland County

Fast facts:

- Northbound lanes of I-75 will be closed from Crooks Road to M-59.
- The closure begins at 4 am and ends by noon on Saturday, Oct. 22.
- Closure is needed for bridge beam setting on northbound I-75 over Square Lake Road.

October 19, 2016 -- Weather permitting, northbound I-75 will be closed Saturday from Crooks Road to M-59 in Oakland County, according to the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT). The closure begins at 4 am and will open by noon Saturday, October 22. The closure is needed for crews to set bridge beams that carry northbound I-75 over Square Lake Road.

Northbound traffic will be detoured to northbound Crooks Road, then westbound M-59 back to I-75.

For safety reasons, both directions of Square Lake Road will be closed under I-75. Eastbound Square Lake Road traffic will use northbound Adams Road to eastbound South Boulevard, then southbound Coolidge Road. Westbound Square Lake Road will be directed to northbound Coolidge Road, then westbound South Boulevard to southbound Adams Road.

In addition to the freeway closure, the following ramps will be closed:

- Eastbound and westbound Big Beaver Road to northbound I-75
- Crooks Road to northbound I-75.
